I am an Indian, American Indian. I prefer 'American Indian' (because) anyone born in the western hemisphere is a 'native American.' - Russell Means (1939-2012, Republic of Lakotah) 2) Who is an "American Indian"? Many millions of American citizens have Native American ancestry in their family trees, but that does not make them "American Indian" in the eyes of the United States government.

Due to the longevity of the Indianapolis 500, numerous traditions surrounding the race have developed over the years. Traditions include procedures for the running of the race, scheduling, and pre-race and post-race festivities. For many fans, these traditions are an important aspect of the race, and they have often reacted quite negatively when the traditions are changed or broken.
