History. Bach may have written the concerto between 1717 and 1723 when he was the Kapellmeister at the court of Anhalt-Köthen, Germany, though the work's surviving performance materials were created for the concert series that Bach ran as the Director of the Collegium Musicum in Leipzig and are dated c. 1730-31. Later in 1739, in Leipzig, he created an arrangement for two harpsichords ...

It has often been said, and not without reason, that baroque music began in Italy.. The Baroque Period saw the resurgence of Rome as the Catholic Centre of the world, after a long period of decline. Money poured into the City Coffers, artists and sculptors worked to make the Eternal City the living, open-air museum it is today.
