Candle, in our sense of the term, was unknown to antiquity. (2) "Candlestick" stands for what was a common and indispensable article of ancient house furniture, a lamp-stand (menorah). Accordingly we find it mentioned in a case thoroughly representative of the furnishings of an oriental room of the plainer sort, in the account of "the prophet's ...

Candle; Candlestick Definition and Meaning - Bible Dictionary

The common folk simply over-turned a bushel and used that as a lampstand. That's why Jesus said people don't light a lamp and put it under a bushel; that lamp gives light to all in the house. (Matthew 5: 14 -16) It would have struck the people living in biblical times as an absurd picture to put your lamp under your bushel basket. In the ...
