The Acting Person And Christian

"Darlene Weaver's, The Acting Person and the Christian Moral Life, should represent a new starting point for sterile debates in ethics, and in particular Catholic moral theology. Drawing on philosophical accounts of the role of description for naming moral actions, she provides a constructive account of how theological language should do its proper work."—Stanley Hauerwas, Carole Baker Research Associate, Duke Divinity School

How to Act Like a Christian in Any Circumstance: 10 Steps

I don't care whether you're Catholic, Evangelical, Reformed Christian, Methodist, Mormon, Pentecostal, or Baptist! If you're going to believe in the Bible and profess that you're one of Jesus's disciples...then start acting like it. Its almost laughable when I see people at church treating others as if they were mortal enemies.

If You're Going to Be A Christian...Then Act Like It!
